

Let's Go!
July 10th

TULSA DAILY WORLD

FINAL
Edition
4 o'clock A.M.

VOL. XIII, NO. 261.

TULSA, OKLAHOMA, THURSDAY, JUNE 12, 1919.

20 PAGES

PRICE 5 CENTS.

WIRE BUSINESS NOT SERIOUSLY TIED UP

PARADE PUT OFF UNTIL 5 O'CLOCK

Delay in Schedule of Troop Trains Causes Later Hour for Reception.

FIRST ARRIVE EARLY TODAY

Sometime Before Noon Premier Men Will Arrive; Others Come Later.

DUNN TO MEET ENGINEERS

Assistant County Attorney Will Wire Exact Hour of Soldiers' Arrival.

On account of the many delays in the three train loads conveying the 10th engineers, including Company D Tulsa's own, the parade of the heroes has been postponed until 5 o'clock this afternoon. This action was taken by the Joe Carson post of the American Legion at the meeting in the courthouse at 8 o'clock last night.

Up to a late hour last night the post had not received any definite word when the trains would arrive in the city. The first train was scheduled to leave Memphis at 8:30 o'clock last night and should arrive in Tulsa some time this morning. The other train will arrive several hours later.

E. Dunn, assistant county attorney and a member of the post, left Tulsa last night and will meet the engineers in Springfield, Mo. Mr. Dunn was sent by the Joe Carson post in an effort to obtain permission from the commanding officer of the engineers for the boys to stay over in Tulsa for a longer period than one hour, as was formerly announced. He will remain in Tulsa until the Tulsa post will wire the reception committee the exact hour of their arrival.

Every minute detail of the parade and its reception has been arranged by the post committee and the boys will be accorded a reception which will surpass any reception given returning soldiers in Oklahoma.

The men in the first group train will be given breakfast by the commandant of the Red Cross. The remainder of the regiment will be furnished meals by the Joe Carson post.

SEVENTY-FIVE KILLED IN FIGHTING AT MONTEREY.

BROWNSVILLE, Texas, June 11.—Information was received in official quarters here today that 75 persons were killed in the Mexican city of Monterrey in fighting that started early Monday morning after the election Sunday, and which was continuing last night.

The first official information received by the post committee was to the effect that only company D would parade, but the war department has changed the plans and will allow the entire personnel of the regiment to march with the exception of company C, which will participate in the parade.

The area through which it is believed the parade will be completed this morning.

ARMY IS CUT TO 300,000 MEN.

WASHINGTON, June 11.—Further reduction in the size of the army to be maintained for the next fiscal year was tentatively agreed upon by the house today in deciding to base applications for pay and maintenance on an army of 300,000 men instead of 400,000 as recommended by the house military committee. The war department had recommended provision for an army of 300,000.

SEVENTY-FIVE KILLED IN FIGHTING AT MONTEREY.

BROWNSVILLE, Texas, June 11.—Information was received in official quarters here today that 75 persons were killed in the Mexican city of Monterrey in fighting that started early Monday morning after the election Sunday, and which was continuing last night.

The first official information received by the post committee was to the effect that only company D would parade, but the war department has changed the plans and will allow the entire personnel of the regiment to march with the exception of company C, which will participate in the parade.

The area through which it is believed the parade will be completed this morning.

ARMY IS CUT TO 300,000 MEN.

WASHINGTON, June 11.—General Pershing has advised that he planned to transport 375,000 men forward during the month of June. This breaks all previous records for moving troops overseas and exceeds the number that Britain moved across the seas in any month.

JUDGE SHEA IN WASHINGTON TO GET OIL LAW EXPLAINED

WASHINGTON, June 11.—Judge John H. Shea and a committee from the M.M.O. came to Oil & Gas Building, stayed here tonight to obtain from the treasury department an exact interpretation of the discriminatory clause of the revenue law.

The committee found that where the percentage of oil well who discovered the oil was only 20 per cent and those who did not discover it was 80 per cent, Oil & Gas are to know just what constitutes the well.

D. S. MEDALS AWARDED SOLDIERS FROM OKLAHOMA

WASHINGTON, June 11.—Following awards of the distinguished service medal to officers and enlisted men of the expeditionary forces were announced yesterday by General Pershing in a report today to the War Department.

Medalist recipient Eddison Breden, Captain of H. Harter, Captain of Lorraine C. Coats, Captain of William C. Soddy, Captain of John Capen, Captain of Frank Friday, Texas.

THE WEATHER

TULSA, Okla., June 11.—Maximum, 86°; minimum, 67°; south winds, clear. OKLAHOMA.—Thursday and Friday, mostly cloudy. LOUISIANA.—ARKANSAS.—Thursday and Friday partly cloudy. EAST AND WEST TEXAS.—Thursday and Friday, generally fair. NEW MEXICO.—Partly cloudy Thursday and Friday with scattered thunder showers, not much change in temperature.

HOME TO RADIANT FUTURE

Back to laughter and to love,
Back to peace and gentle ways.
Back to health and health again,
With the charms of happy days.

Homes now our homes come,
From the awful fields of strife,
Now the cannon's voice is dumb,
Death has given way to life.

Men go forth no more to die,
Youth may sleep until its dream,
Mother now may cross to sigh,
With the smile of health again.

Over their loved ones as they toll,
Danger does not hedge them round;
Night shall hold no blood-stained soil,
Night shall bring no new-made mound.

Now to sweater conquests we
Turn our thoughts and build once more.
For the joys we hope to see
As we did in days of yore.

Safely we may roll and plan,
Bravely we may do and dare;
Now the future holds for man
Glorious things which he may share.

Homes now our heroes come,
Back to hope and merriment glad,
Now more need muffled drum
Tell the passing of sad.

Ended is the bitter strife,
Dons the bayonets and the fears;
Death has given way to life,
Youth now claims its happy years.

Youth may now a maiden fair,
Youth may dream and hope and plan,
May with venture venture where
Others wait to crook the arm.

From the hopeless land of night,
Today is marching out.
Into years with promise bright
Copyright, 1919, by Edgar A. Guest.

WIRE BRIEFS

ARMY IS CUT TO 300,000 MEN.

WASHINGTON, June 11.—Further reduction in the size of the army to be maintained for the next fiscal year was tentatively agreed upon by the house today in deciding to base applications for pay and maintenance on an army of 300,000 men instead of 400,000 as recommended by the house military committee. The war department had recommended provision for an army of 300,000.

SEVENTY-FIVE KILLED IN FIGHTING AT MONTEREY.

BROWNSVILLE, Texas, June 11.—Information was received in official quarters here today that 75 persons were killed in the Mexican city of Monterrey in fighting that started early Monday morning after the election Sunday, and which was continuing last night.

The first official information received by the post committee was to the effect that only company D would parade, but the war department has changed the plans and will allow the entire personnel of the regiment to march with the exception of company C, which will participate in the parade.

The area through which it is believed the parade will be completed this morning.

ARMY IS CUT TO 300,000 MEN.

WASHINGTON, June 11.—General Pershing has advised that he planned to transport 375,000 men forward during the month of June. This breaks all previous records for moving troops overseas and exceeds the number that Britain moved across the seas in any month.

JUDGE SHEA IN WASHINGTON TO GET OIL LAW EXPLAINED

WASHINGTON, June 11.—General Pershing has advised that he planned to transport 375,000 men forward during the month of June. This breaks all previous records for moving troops overseas and exceeds the number that Britain moved across the seas in any month.

JUDGE SHEA IN WASHINGTON TO GET OIL LAW EXPLAINED

WASHINGTON, June 11.—General Pershing has advised that he planned to transport 375,000 men forward during the month of June. This breaks all previous records for moving troops overseas and exceeds the number that Britain moved across the seas in any month.

JUDGE SHEA IN WASHINGTON TO GET OIL LAW EXPLAINED

WASHINGTON, June 11.—General Pershing has advised that he planned to transport 375,000 men forward during the month of June. This breaks all previous records for moving troops overseas and exceeds the number that Britain moved across the seas in any month.

JUDGE SHEA IN WASHINGTON TO GET OIL LAW EXPLAINED

WASHINGTON, June 11.—General Pershing has advised that he planned to transport 375,000 men forward during the month of June. This breaks all previous records for moving troops overseas and exceeds the number that Britain moved across the seas in any month.

JUDGE SHEA IN WASHINGTON TO GET OIL LAW EXPLAINED

WASHINGTON, June 11.—General Pershing has advised that he planned to transport 375,000 men forward during the month of June. This breaks all previous records for moving troops overseas and exceeds the number that Britain moved across the seas in any month.

JUDGE SHEA IN WASHINGTON TO GET OIL LAW EXPLAINED

WASHINGTON, June 11.—General Pershing has advised that he planned to transport 375,000 men forward during the month of June. This breaks all previous records for moving troops overseas and exceeds the number that Britain moved across the seas in any month.

JUDGE SHEA IN WASHINGTON TO GET OIL LAW EXPLAINED

GRANT GERMANS 5 DAYS TO SIGN

Limit Will Come on or Before June 18 as Allies Agree on Reply.

FOE GETS ANSWER FRIDAY

Council of Four Makes Distinct Progress in Discussion of Conditions.

REPARATIONS AGREED UPON

Subject of Sharp Controversy Finally Settled; Wilson Loses Contentions.

By The Associated Press.

PARIS, June 11.—Distinct progress was reported tonight on the supply of the allied and associated governments to the German counter-proposals and indications are that the reply will be ready for delivery on Friday.

The Germans will be given five days limit for final action, which would, therefore, come on or before June 18.

The main feature of this progress was an agreement regarding the reparations terms, which have been the subject of a sharp controversy during the past 10 days.

As finally adopted, the terms do not fix the definite amount of reparations, but the commission is required to fix the amount within four months of the signing of the treaty.

The main changes are explanations rather than modifications, in order to meet the contention that the financial commission was vexatious, impulsive and infringed Germany's rights to conduct her own financial affairs. The revised terms clear away much that was open to the critics and are being vexatious.

Final action of Germany's request for admission to the league of nations has not yet been reached, but the discussion is declared to be tending toward an accord. The Silesian question, which has given difficulty, also has been virtually settled.

Though all the chances are that the reply will be delivered by the end of the week, President Wilson has made no public statement. In Paris, as he has an engagement to speak at a dinner Saturday night, Colonel House will leave for London Friday night and will remain there during the five days allowed the Germans.

The revised treaty and memorandum accompanying the treaty will be sent to Count von Brockdorff-Rantzau, head of the German delegation, by messenger with a formal ceremony.

A lengthy memorandum gives the reasons for the refusal and explains the operations of the league of nations on colonial matters.

President Wilson fought strenuously to include a fixed total sum in the reparations clause, and the close of the discussion leaves him unchanged, it is said, in the belief that this is the best plan. It is understood, however, that the president still insinuates a frontier indemnity had been left to the allies and also that he had signed the original draft, he would sign the one formulated.

Though all the chances are that the reply will be delivered by the end of the week, President Wilson has made no public statement.

WESTERN UNION HIT HARD

Twenty-Eight Employees of Commercial Department Leave—Low Wages Chief Complaint.

"We want the right to organize and deal for our services collectively," say the telegraphers of the Western Union, Mackay and Postal companies who walked out yesterday morning in response to the call for a nationwide strike. Twenty-eight Western Union workers in the commercial department answered the call and the Postel operators all but one and nine of three operators of the Mackay company are still on the job, according to advice from the strikers late last night.

There were no defections from the strikers during the day and none of those who quit went back to work. He was absent at the meeting of the strikers yesterday afternoon that was called to quit until the strike is over. All are looking for positions now and will go to work as quickly as possible. They are not worried about the future, as they feel that any kind of job they can get is better than working for the telephone companies under the present conditions.

"Don't fear. Get a job and get to work as quickly as you can. Officers in the region so many strikes of their purpose."

Fowler was on his way to Tulsa with a cask of whiskey when he was held up by two men and refused to stop his automobile, and he was shot, the police say.

An organizer of the C. U. A. is expected in the city Saturday, and at that time the local union will be formed and affiliated with the national organization.

The striking operators complain that under present conditions the wages are too low and not standard, and who are employing men who are not qualified, and a few who are employees get as much as $35. It is the contention of the strikers that under present conditions they are at the whim of superiors of the office and are not paid according to their capacity, but according to the demands of the men who are employing them.

We believe there are a lot of other citizens of Tulsa who did not support him in the last city election who feel just as we do and that all those who are opposing him in this water question are prompted from ulterior motives, if they are doing so on his official report. If the integrity of Mayor Hubbard is involved in the campaign for good water, The World lines up with him. We believe he is all right and can't be fixed and Charles Page has no use for a man like that.

CONTINUED ON PAGE TWO

TULSA TELEGRAPHERS MAKE UNION DEMANDS

Despite More Than Thirty Operators Left Their Local Offices Are Handling Business.

WESTERN UNION HIT HARD

Twenty-Eight Employees of Commercial Department Leave—Low Wages Chief Complaint.

"We want the right to organize and deal for our services collectively," say the telegraphers of the Western Union, Mackay and Postal companies who walked out yesterday morning in response to the call for a nationwide strike. Twenty-eight Western Union workers in the commercial department answered the call and the Postel operators all but one and nine of three operators of the Mackay company are still on the job, according to advice from the strikers late last night.

There were no defections from the strikers during the day and none of those who quit went back to work. He was absent at the meeting of the strikers yesterday afternoon that was called to quit until the strike is over. All are looking for positions now and will go to work as quickly as possible. They are not worried about the future, as they feel that any kind of job they can get is better than working for the telephone companies under the present conditions.

"Don't fear. Get a job and get to work as quickly as you can. Officers in the region so many strikes of their purpose."

Fowler was on his way to Tulsa with a cask of whiskey when he was held up by two men and refused to stop his automobile, and he was shot, the police say.

An organizer of the C. U. A. is expected in the city Saturday, and at that time the local union will be formed and affiliated with the national organization.

The striking operators complain that under present conditions the wages are too low and not standard, and who are employing men who are not qualified, and a few who are employees get as much as $35. It is the contention of the strikers that under present conditions they are at the whim of superiors of the office and are not paid according to their capacity, but according to the demands of the men who are employing them.

We believe there are a lot of other citizens of Tulsa who did not support him in the last city election who feel just as we do and that all those who are opposing him in this water question are prompted from ulterior motives, if they are doing so on his official report. If the integrity of Mayor Hubbard is involved in the campaign for good water, The World lines up with him. We believe he is all right and can't be fixed and Charles Page has no use for a man like that.

CONTINUED ON PAGE TWO

Muskogee Will Try to Run Cars Today; Warrants Out for 11